

UDBOP General Meeting 1/15/2020

Indoor updates:

- The floor is done and props will be delivered soon
- Music will be completed by January and drill will be completed soon after - the expectation is to go to the first competition with a complete show
- Thanks to a generous donation, we were able to get “new” drums for the percussionists as well as two sets of cymbals.
- There is a time change for Saturday’s rehearsal due to the gala (1/18/2020) - practice will now be from 8 am to 11 am.
- Sponsor books and shout outs are all due by 2/17/2020. Each student has a goal of $100 in ads for the sponsor book.
- There will be a community preview of the indoor drumline show on Monday, March 30th and we will need volunteers to help with that event as well

Directors Report:

- It is officially winter concert season
- The first jazz competition will be held in late February
- The gala is on Saturday 1/18/2020. The show opens with the jazz band, the wind ensemble will be playing later in the show and students will also be part of a combined ensemble.

- The account will be under $5000 after the final Disney payment is submitted. We need to ensure that we are leaving some money for future ensembles.
- We have a fundraiser (flea market) coming up in the fall which should help increase our balance
- We have been offered to sell concessions for the Fire Police Flea Market in June.

Student Fundraising:

- Stock’s Fundraisers were due 1/15/2020. In order to be considered for additional orders, the original 5 must have been turned in. Each cake earns the student $5 towards their band accounts.

General Fundraising:

- Always open to new ideas
